New Pastor for St. James & St. Clement

I am happy to announce that Fr. Kevin Elbert, pastor of St. Luke Parish in Lakewood has been appointed the new Pastor of St. James and St. Clement Parish, effective December 1, 2023. This is in addition to being Pastor of St. Luke's Parish.

Bishop Malesic will also be assigning a full-time parochial vicar to assist Father Kevin in the ministry of these three parishes. This appointment will take place in June, 2024. In the meantime, there will be an adjustment in the daily Mass schedule at all three parishes. There will be one daily Mass at 8:15 am. The Mass will be at St. Luke on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, St. Clement on Thursday, and at St. James on Friday. There will be no changes in the weekend Mass schedule at any of the parishes.

Father Kevin plans to celebrate the Masses at St. James and St. Clement on the weekend of December 2-3 as a way of introducing himself as the new Pastor for these parish communities.

May I take this opportunity to thank you for your patience and understanding during my time as administrator at St. James and St. Clement. Please welcome Father Kevin as you did me when I began, and offer him your prayers and support as he begins this new ministry among you. Be assured of my prayers for him and for all the people of these three Lakewood parishes as you seek to work together to be a viable presence in the greater Lakewood community.

Father John Chlebo
